

The screenshot shows a table editor interface. The table has a header row with columns labeled 'customer', 'List Box 1', 'amount', and 'ordered'. A red arrow points to the 'List Box 1' header, with the text 'right-click' next to it, indicating the action being performed. The table body is empty. The interface includes a ruler at the top and a vertical scrollbar on the right.

right-click